Was $10,000 NOW $7,000

ANY SINGLE SPECIES

This outfitter operates in the scenic Cassiar and Rocky Mountains of Northern British Columbia, Canada. There are no roads in this isolated piece of Canadian wilderness of over 1.6 million acres of exclusive hunting area. Horses are utilized on hunts wherever the terrain allows for them, as they provide access to vast country and give many clients a better, overall hunting experience. Most of the goat hunts require some backpacking. All hunts are 1x1 guided and most are spot and stalk. Calling is also utilized during the moose rut. Hunts begin and end in the town of Smithers, BC (daily flights from Vancouver, BC to Smithers).

Included: outfitting and guiding services, camp equipment, livestock, lodging, food, and trophy care.

Not included: travel to Smithers, lodging during transit, trophy shipping, tips, or personal items.
